Dear Paul:

As per your letter to me of March 26, I am sending to you confirmation of the legal dispensation of the case against Daniel Donahue which you have had in your pending file since July of last year.

Since he was found guilty and sentenced for personally committing an unlawful act, he should not be allowed to participate further in the Scouting program and his papers should remain permanently in a confidential file.

If anything further is needed, just let me know.

SUBJECT: Daniel Donahue

Dear Ron:

This is a follow-up to our previous communication concerning Daniel Donahue. He would like more information concerning the outcome of any legal action which has taken place.

If this case has now been completed, the conviction and sentencing would be most helpful to us in making certain that registration may be refused wherever he might attempt a registration.

If you will keep us informed as this information is available, this will certainly help us to close this case and have the necessary facts for refusal anywhere in the country.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Ron:

Thank you for your letter of June 27 concerning the registration of Daniel Donahue, former Scoutmaster Troop 259.

We appreciate the information which you have sent and the very complete confidential record sheet. This will enable us to identify Mr. Donahue, should he try to register somewhere else.

We would like to have more information as it becomes available, and please indicate the outcome of any legal action. This would enable us to refuse registration at a latter time, in any part of the country.

I should look forward to hearing from you as this case is completed. Thanks for your help.

Dear Paul:

Enclosed you will find paperwork on Daniel Donahue, former Scoutmaster of Boy Scout Troop 259, chartered to the Nashua Association for Retarded Citizens in Nashua, New Hampshire.

On May 14, 1985, Mr. Donahue was arrested for allegedly molesting a male minor. Upon learning of his arrest, we took the immediate action of suspending his registration and notifying him of the same via a hand-delivered letter (see copy enclosed) to him in jail. He made no comment at the time but did sign that he had received the letter (see document enclosed).

We have held up notification to you pending his actual indictment since, with his wife's refusal to post bail, he has remained in jail since his arrest. Now that he has been indicted (see news clipping enclosed), we are forwarding all paperwork to you.

If anything further is needed, please advise.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Donahue:

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are therefore compelled to request that you sever any relations that you may have with the Boy Scouts of America.

You should understand that BSA leadership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not measure up to the high standards of leadership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth. Please also understand that this decision and the reasons for it will be maintained as confidential.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed, please write to me, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA leader should be granted or reinstated.

Sincerely yours,

Homer L. Ash

Man faces sexual assault charge

A 55-year-old Nashua man was arrested at 2 a.m. today for allegedly molesting a boy yesterday, according to Detective Maj. Robert C. Barry.

Daniel J. Donahue of 11 New Hampshire Ave. is charged with aggravated felonious sexual assault, Barry said. He would not say where the alleged attack took place or provide any other details.

Police are seeking a teen-age boy in connection with a burglary Saturday morning at a Verona Street home.

Barry said the boy, described as weighing about 140 pounds and dressed in cut-off blue jeans and a blue T-shirt, entered the home of Esther M. Gorman, 4 Verona St., at about 11.

The boy grabbed Mrs. Gorman's pocketbook while she slept, Barry said, but she was awakened when she heard a noise and went downstairs. She spotted the boy, yelled at him, and he dropped the pocketbook and ran out the back door.

Investigators are also probing a burglary Sunday night or Monday morning at the main concession stand at Holman Stadium.

A window was forced open, and it appeared a walk-in refrigerator had been entered. It was not known what was taken.

THE NASHUA TELEGRAPH 5/14/75

Nashua has been charged with kidnapping a 17-year-old girl and raping her five times.

This week, a Hillsborough County Grand Jury handed down five rape indictments and one kidnapping indictment against Duff, 33, formerly of 16 D Street, Nashua.

Duff was out on work release from the Hillsborough County House of Correction on April 16 when he allegedly raped the girl in the woods off Osgood Road. The indictments allege Duff abducted the girl on Elm Street and forced her into a truck. Duff then allegedly hit the girl and threatened further harm before the rapes.

Duff is currently being held in the Hillsborough County Jail in lieu of $50,000 bail. No arraignment or trial date has been set at this time.

telling a judge, the governor and nationwide television audiences that she lied when she said he raped her in 1977.

She said she fabricated a rape story because she feared she was pregnant after having sex with a teenage boy.

Dolson's lawyer, Warren Lupel, said Mrs. Webb and her husband, David, agreed to be available any time Dolson may need them in the future.

"I don't think my obligation to him is at an end," Mrs. Webb said.

Later, Dolson said he expected their friendship would continue.

"I'm sure I'll drop her a dime occasionally," he said, meaning he would telephone, "just to see how she and her husband are doing. I'm sure the to ease property tax burden

CONCORD (AP) — The Senate passed a bill to restructure the state's program to aid local school districts but it still is not clear how much money the state will provide.

On a voice vote, the Senate approved a House bill that would roll all of the state's education bills into one formula, including foundation aid, sweepstakes money, special education aid and the schools' share of the business profits tax. The formula would be based on a community's tax base and the value of taxable property.

The bill's supporters say it will help ease the burden of property taxes in poorer communities.

The new formula also makes adjustments for the different types of students in a school district so that districts with many special education students will get more aid.

"The formula will benefit the neediest school districts regardless of the amount of money involved," said Sen. William Johnson, R-Northwood.

The House bill calls for $50.2 million a year in state aid while Gov. John Sununu has made $39.1 million available in his budget.

Randy Bell of the School Board's Association said that under the House plan, about 80 towns would lose about $2 million in three or four years. At $39.1 million, about 130 communities would lose about $4 million, he said.

NASHUA DISTRICT COURT CASES

Daniel T. Donahue, 55, of 1 New Hampshire Ave. was arraigned yesterday in Nashua District Court on a charge of aggravated felonious sexual assault.

Donahue was ordered held at the Hillsborough County Jail, Manchester, in lieu of $10,000 cash or surety bail for a probable cause hearing June 13.

Michael J. Gorham, 26, of 16

charges of driving while intoxicated, second offense, and driving after revocation of his license. A bench warrant was ordered for his arrest.

Rene J. Larocque, 38, of 32 Kinsley St. failed to appear on a charge of criminal trespass. A bench warrant was ordered for his arrest.

James R. Feeley Jr., 42, of 84 Powers St., Milford, pleaded no contest to driving while intoxicated.

Richard D. Hammond, 47, Manchester pleaded innocent to criminal trespass and the case was dismissed for lack of prosecution.

Debra A. Poltner, 23, of 6 Powers St., Hudson, pleaded guilty to aggravated driving while intoxicated. She was fined $400, had her license revoked for one year, was sentenced to 30 days in the House of Correction,

Queen City Woman Is Indicted On Negligent Homicide Charge

The Hillsborough County Grand Jury returned 152 indictments in its June session including a negligent homicide indictment against a 27-year-old Manchester woman.

Cheryl Laplante of 232 Lowell St. is charged in connection with the May 17 death of pedestrian Laurence Stevens, 75, of 10 Paxon St.

Stevens was struck outside the Store 24 at 331 Main St., Nashua, at 11:41 p.m. by a car operated by Laplante. He was pronounced dead a half hour after the accident.

According to the indictment, Laplante was "under the influence of intoxicating liquor" at the time of the accident.

Other indictments were returned against:

Brian Bartlett, 35, of 43 Bacon St., Nashua, one count of aggravated felonious sexual assault in connection with the alleged sexual intercourse with a 9-year-old girl in late January.

Daniel T. Donahue, 55, of 11 New Hampshire Ave., Nashua, one count of aggravated felonious sexual assault in connection with an alleged assault May 14 in Nashua against a 12-year-old boy to whom he was related.
